MAY FETE AT PLEASANTON.

The Pleasanton Public School is preparing a May Fete for Saturday afternoon, May 10. Miss Elene Mohr of the High School Department has been chosen Queen for the day. The coronation of the Queen will be one of the many features of the program.

Over twenty folk dances and games wil be given by the different grades and three May Poles will be wound at the same time.

This is one of the greatest undertakings ever attempted by the teachers and pupils of the school and every effort is being put forth to make it a success. The Fete will be held in one of Nature's beautiful spots near the school building a place well adapted for the purpose.

Refreshments will be sold by the children, the proceeds to be used toward improving the school and grounds. The program will begin promptly at two o'clock.

The program is as follows:

Niles Notes

The card party planned by Mrs. Eleanor Clarke for Saturday May 3rd, has been postponed to Saturday May 10th.

Mrs. Mary Arnold of Oakland is spending the week with friends in Niles.

Mrs. H. C. Plummer has been in San Francisco during the week with her children—her little son requiring medical treatment.

Mrs. W. H. Ford is expected home from her trip to Cuba and Jamaica and other points about May 17th.

Mrs. Harry Tyson and children from Alameda have been at the W. H. Tyson home this week.

A supper will be served by the ladies of the Congregational Guild next Wednesday evening after the close of the Guild meeting in the afternoon. Mrs. Jacobus and Mrs. Roy Morgan will have charge of the menu. Those present at the initial supper two weeks ago, found the evening so enjoyable that they will be sure to come again, and a general invitation is extended to those who want to enjoy a good meal at a low price.

Some changes are being made in the water pipe system this week by the Citizens Water Company and Mr. J. C. Shinn.

The Birthday Club met on Wednesday with Mrs. Walpert in honor of both Mrs. Walpert's and Miss DeCora's birthdays. A delightful day was spent by the members. Following enjoyed during th eafternoon hours, Mrs. Mayhew and Mrs. H. B. Ellsworth receiving the club gifts for highest scores. Mrs. Walpert's gift from the Club was a dozen beautiful goblets. Mrs. Arnold of Oakland, Mrs. Mendell and Mrs. Abernethy of Berkeley were the guests of the Club for the afternoon. The last meeting of the year will celebrate Mrs. Sneden's birthday on Friday, May 9th.

The luncheon given by Mrs. Eberly on Saturday last complimentary to Mrs. Huxley, was a charming affair. About thirty ladies were present in response to invitations. After a time spent in social chat all were seated at tables for the enjoyment of the dainty menu served by the hostess. Following this a number of games of whist were enjoyed. Beautiful gifts in silver were presented to Mrs. H. B. Ellsworth and Mrs. Higley for highest scores, and Mrs. Robert Bonner received the consolation gift. Besides the guests from Niles and surrounding towns, Mrs. Kelly and Miss Benson of San ose were present—the mother and aunt of Mrs. Eberly. Miss Grace Huxley and Miss Alice Kelly assisted Mrs. Eberly in entertaining her friends. The Huxley family have left Centerville and are now domiciled in their Berkeley home.

Mrs. H. Searles of Decoto spent two days this week with Mrs. Jarvis of Berkeley. On Thursday she was a guest at a luncheon given in her honor by Mrs. Leland Cutler.

Rossney Uslar and his bride of San Jose called upon friends in Niles Sunday. His marriage occurred the 14th of last month.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Baldwin of Auberry, Fresno County, are guests at the Baldwin home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jacobus were hosts at a very delightful meeting of friends of Oakland at their home last Sunday. The affair was an out of door one and about forty-five had driven out in machines in the morning. And they were ecstatic in their appreciation of the beauties of the Jacobus place at this time of the year—a veritable bower of roses and blossoms. A barbecue was enjoyed with J. E. Jacobus as chef, long tables having been spread under the shelter of the palms and roses. And as the autos moved homeward all carried a generous supply of the beautiful flowers.

Mrs. M. Cadwallader returned last Saturday from a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Watters in Burlingame.

Mrs. Ida Easterday was called to San Jose on Thursday to attend the funreal of a very dear friend.

Mrs. L. Phillips and daughter Lorene, and Mrs. C. Fournier and sons Lloyd and Veloise returned Monday from Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugurst and Mr. and Mrs. Whuller of Oakland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hatch over Sunday.

NEW ICE CREAM PARLOR.

J. C. Scott is hard at work this week with carpenters transforming the old Niles restaurant into an attractive ice cream and candy parlor. A handsome plate glass front with marble base and prism glass above, one of the most modern and attractive business fronts in Niles will be installed. The interior will be enlarged and thoroughly rebuilt and renovated.

The soda fountain and glass show cases will be of the latest and most attractive designs.

An addition is being built on the rear and when completed Mr. Scott will have a thoroughly up-to-date parlor. He has secured a three year lease on the place. He expects to have his opening in time for the Niles Street Carnival.
